

Dear Parent,

Welcome. Thank you for choosing Oglebay Institute Summer Day Camps!

Oglebay Institute requires the attached forms be completed and returned prior to the first day of camp. No child will be admitted to camp without these forms. The information is needed in order to effectively attend to your child's needs during an emergency, illness, or other circumstance. Please complete each section fully.

Additionally, we ask that you review the Oglebay Institute Summer Camp Handbook located on the Oglebay Institute website (oionline.com/camps). This helpful guide introduces parents and students to summer camp policies and procedure and addresses frequently asked questions such as what to wear, pick up procedures, lunch policies, etc. Please familiarize yourself with this information, review it with your child and consult it throughout the camping season. If you do not have access to the Internet, you can request a hard copy of this information be mailed to you.

HEALTH INFORMATION:

- Please complete and sign the enclosed OI Health Information Form and return before the first day of camp. No child will be permitted to attend camp without this form! Each form will be reviewed and kept on file in case of emergency.
- Camp staff is NOT permitted, under any circumstances, to dispense medication. Please do not ask the staff to do so. The camp staff will only handle first aid situations.
- If you suspect that he/she is ill, please keep your child at home to avoid unnecessary exposure to other campers or instructors. Please call the camp to report your child's absence.
- Please let the staff know if your child has any food allergies, including wheat, dairy or peanuts.
- Emergencies exceeding the knowledge of the instructor will be handled by Wheeling Hospital or Ohio Valley Medical Center. If the instructor does not deem the situation an emergency, parents will be notified and arrangements will be made for pick-up.

PICK-UP AND RELEASE INFORMATION:

A parent or guardian must accompany each camper into the facility every morning. Each child must also be signed out at the end of the day at the correct location. Campers are not permitted to sign themselves in or out. Please complete the enclosed Pick-up and Release Information.

Code of Conduct

Student Code of Conduct

Students learn better in a secure, orderly, and non-disruptive environment. The goal of Oglebay Institute is to help students and teachers create an environment that is conducive to teaching and learning.

At Oglebay Institute clear and reasonable rules are fairly and consistently implemented. Inappropriate or disruptive behavior by the student will not be tolerated and may result in removal of the student from the class or camp. Chronic offenders may be expelled from attending future classes or camps. No refund will be extended to expelled participants.

A safe and positive learning environment for students and adults is essential to our success and we appreciate your commitment to these principles.

Four General School Rules:

1. Listen politely and follow directions.
2. Keep hands, feet and objects to yourself.
3. Be courteous and polite. Respect the rights of others and respect the property of the organization.
4. Use appropriate language.

Expectations for Student Behavior:

1. Students will arrive to class on time.
2. Students will listen carefully and respectfully to their instructors and administrators.
3. Students under the age of 18 will ask for assistance from the adults in charge should they have trouble with another student.

By signing below, the student and his or her parent/guardian indicate their understanding and agreement to abide by this Code of Conduct.
