

Thank you for choosing Oglebay Institute's Nature Day Camp! The staff at the Schrader Center is looking forward to the 2017 camp season! We're excited about the new activities, crafts, and lessons that are planned.

Oglebay Institute requires the attached forms be completed and returned prior to the first day of camp.

No child will be admitted to camp without these forms.

The information is needed in order to effectively attend to your child's needs during an emergency, illness, or other circumstance. Please complete each section fully.

HEALTH INFORMATION:

Camp staff is NOT permitted, under any circumstances, to dispense daily medication. Please do not ask the staff to do so. The camp staff can only handle first aid situations.

If you suspect that he/she is ill, please keep your child at home to avoid unnecessary exposure to other campers or instructors. Please call Schrader Center to report your child's absence at (304) 242-6855.

Please let the staff know if your child has any food allergies, including wheat, dairy, or peanuts or environmental allergies such as pollen or insect stings including bees.

Emergencies exceeding the knowledge of the instructor will be handled by Wheeling Hospital or Ohio Valley Medical Center. If the instructor does not deem the situation an emergency, parents will be notified and arrangements will be made for pick-up.

PICK-UP AND RELEASE INFORMATION:

Arrival time for Budding Naturalists (Age 4- Kdg) is 8:15am-8:30 am and departure is at 11:30 am. All other camps, age 1st-9th grades, should arrive between 8:45 – 9:00 am and departure time is 3:00 pm. A parent or guardian must accompany each camper into the facility every morning, and sign each camper in upon arrival and out at the end of each day. Campers are not permitted to sign themselves in or out. Please note that Nature Investigators, Explorers, and Scholars will swim at the Oglebay Pool at Crispin on Monday, Wednesday and Friday only.

Please complete the enclosed Pick-up and Release Information. Only those listed on this form will be allowed to pick-up your child from camp in your absence. Also, please indicate any person who is never authorized to pick-up your child. Each form will be reviewed and kept on file. Any person picking up your child will need to show photo identification.

Camp staff must be notified in advance if your child will be attending pre and /or post care to allow for proper planning.

WHAT TO BRING

Budding Naturalists:

- Budding Naturalist Campers will be provided a snack and will NOT be going to the pool. All activities will take place in and around the Schrader Center. A change of clothes and/or shoes may be left in their cubby for the entire week.
- No toys, snacks or miscellaneous items may be sent with the children unless cleared through the camp staff.

Nature Explorers, Investigators and Scholars:

- One clean towel and bathing suit should be sent on M, W, F. Suits and towels will go home each of those days with the campers. Please put items in a bag or backpack.
- Tennis shoes or hiking boots are required. Children should wear comfortable play clothes. A jacket or sweatshirt may be necessary in the morning.
- A non-perishable lunch should be sent each day (except Fridays). A drink will be provided for the camper’s lunches. Please clearly label the lunch with the camper’s name.
- Friday is camp cookout day. Please do not pack a lunch unless your child has special dietary requirements. A typical cookout menu includes items such as hot dogs, potato chips, fruit, cookies, and kool-aid. A vegetarian option will be prepared upon request.
- Please send sunscreen and/or bug spray labeled with the child’s name. Please apply before sending your child to camp. The staff will remind campers to reapply as needed.
- No toys, snacks or miscellaneous items may be sent with the children unless cleared through the camp staff.

TRANSPORTATION

By signing the Camp Information Forms, you agree to allow your child to be transported to field trip sites or the swimming pool via buses provided by the Institute or Oglebay Park Trolley.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additionally, we ask that you review the Oglebay Institute Summer Camp Handbook located on the Oglebay Institute website, www.oionline.com/camps. This helpful guide introduces parents and students to summer camp policies and procedure and addresses frequently asked questions such as what to wear, pick up procedures, lunch policies, etc. Please familiarize yourself with this information, review it with your child and consult it throughout the camping season. If you do not have access to the Internet, you can request a hard copy of this information be mailed to you.

Code of Conduct

Student Code of Conduct

Students learn better in a secure, orderly, and non-disruptive environment. The goal of Oglebay Institute is to help students and teachers create an environment that is conducive to teaching and learning.

At Oglebay Institute clear and reasonable rules are fairly and consistently implemented. Inappropriate or disruptive behavior by the student will not be tolerated and may result in removal of the student from the class or camp. Chronic offenders may be expelled from attending future classes or camps. No refund will be extended to expelled participants.

A safe and positive learning environment for students and adults is essential to our success and we appreciate your commitment to these principles.

Four General School Rules:

1. Listen politely and follow directions.
2. Keep hands, feet and objects to yourself.
3. Be courteous and polite. Respect the rights of others and respect the property of the organization.
4. Use appropriate language.

Expectations for Student Behavior:

1. Students will arrive to class on time.
2. Students will listen carefully and respectfully to their instructors and administrators.
3. Students under the age of 18 will ask for assistance from the adults in charge should they have trouble with another student.

By signing below, the student and his or her parent/guardian indicate their understanding and agreement to abide by this Code of Conduct.
