

Oglebay Institute's
SCHOOL OF DANCE

Code of Conduct

Student Code of Conduct

Students learn better in a secure, orderly, and non-disruptive environment. The goal of Oglebay Institute's School of Dance's Code of Conduct is to help students and teachers create an environment that is conducive to teaching and learning.

At Oglebay Institute's School of Dance clear and reasonable rules are fairly and consistently implemented. Inappropriate or disruptive behavior by the student or accompanying parent, family member or other caregiver will not be tolerated and may result in removal of the student from the class and or termination from the School of Dance in the Institute's sole discretion.

A safe and positive learning environment for students and adults is essential to our success and we appreciate your commitment to these principles.

Four General School Rules:

1. Listen politely and follow directions.
2. Keep hands, feet and objects to yourself.
3. Be courteous and polite. Respect the rights of others and respect the property of The School of Dance.
4. Use appropriate language.

Expectations for Student Behavior:

1. Students will arrive to class on time, will be dressed in appropriate attire and have hair secured properly.
2. Students will listen carefully and respectfully to their instructors and administrators.
3. Students under the age of 18 will ask for assistance from the adults in charge when they have trouble with another student.

By signing below, the student and his or her parent/guardian indicate their understanding and agreement to abide by this Code of Conduct.

Student

Date: _____

Parent/Guardian

Date: _____